Advisory categories for films and computer games

Three classification categories are advisory categories. This means there are no legal restrictions about viewing and/or playing these films and computer games with these markings.

G – General PG – Parental Guidance
M - Mature

Restricted categories for films and computer games

The following classification categories are restricted categories. This means there are legal restrictions on viewing and/or playing these films and computer games.

MA 15+ - Mature Accompanied

R 18+ - Restricted

Restricted categories for adult films

X 18+ - Restricted

RC – Refused Classification

General (G)

The content is very mild in impact. The G classification is suitable for everyone. G products may contain classifiable elements such as language and themes that are very mild in impact. However, some G-classified films or computer games may contain content that is not of interest to children.

Parental Guidance (PG)

The content is mild in impact. The impact of PG (Parental Guidance) classified films and computer games should be no higher than mild, but they may contain content that children find confusing or upsetting and may require the guidance or parents and guardians. They may, for example, contain classifiable elements such as language and themes that are mild in impact. It is not recommended for viewing or playing by persons under 15 without guidance from parents or guardians.

Mature (M)

The content is moderate in impact. Films and computer games classified M (Mature) contain content of a moderate impact and are recommended for teenagers aged 15 years and over. Children under 15 may legally access this material because it is an advisory category. However, M classified films and computer games may include classifiable elements such as violence and nudity of moderate impact that are not recommended for children under 15 years. Parents and guardians may need to find out more about the film or computer game's specific content, before deciding whether the material is suitable for their child.
