

Our Community Screenings span the South West region throughout the festival and are completely free to attend.

The 2018 Community Screenings Program is a celebration of Australian films, showcasing quintessential Australian personas, landscapes and Aussie anecdotes. Let yourself be taken on a ride through an evolution of Australian film.

Free screenings celebrating "Iconic Australia"

Screened over four days, 23-26 August, 10am to 4pm

Accessible community venues

Babe (1995) [PG]

Director: Chris Noonan
Babe, a pig raised by sheepdogs, learns to herd sheep with a little help from Farmer Hoggett.

The Man From Snowy River (1982) [PG]

Director: George Miller
In 1880s Australia, after young Jim Craig's father dies, Jim takes a job at the Harrison cattle ranch, where he is forced to become a man.

Morning of the World (2018)

Director: Jarvis Macknamara
Is Bali's mass tourism and development eroding away at the very cultural essence that lures visitors there to begin with?

The Castle (1997) [MA15+]

Director: Rob Sitch
A working-class family from Melbourne fights city hall after being told they must vacate their beloved family home to allow for infrastructural expansion.

Kenny (2016) [PG]

Director: Clayton Jacobson
Follow Kenny as he tackles every septic challenge that comes his way, culminating in a pilgrimage to that Mecca of waste management, the International Pumper and Cleaner Expo in Nashville Tennessee - or as Kenny affectionately calls it, "Poo HQ".

All Together Now: Playing with the Churchlands Community Orchestra (2018) [Unclassified]

Director: Kent Hosokawa, Sian Stockdale
All Together Now follows the players of a community orchestra, and discovers how music and community enrich their lives.

Radiance (1998) [MA15+]

Director: Rachel Perkins
With the death of their mother, two sisters return to their childhood home in Northern Australia where their third sister lived looking after their mother. With time to talk, drink and fight, past hurts are revealed and family secrets come out.
